

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The MCO acknowledges with gratitude the contribution of the following people in the design and delivery of the Living Values Project:

- the leading roles played by Ambassador, Emeritus Professor John Davies and Secretary General David Lock in the design and delivery of this project
- the practical insights and guidance provided by Professor Caroline Parker of Glasgow Caledonian University
- the Rectors and staff of the Arab Academy for Science, Technology and Maritime Transport (Egypt), the University of Bologna (Italy), the University Politehnica of Bucharest (Romania), the University of Campinas (UNICAMP) Brazil, Cardiff Metropolitan University (UK), Glasgow Caledonian University (UK), the University of Mauritius, Peoples' Friendship University of Russia, Stockholm University (Sweden) and the University of Tasmania (Australia) for piloting the draft instrument and contributing to the development and promulgation process
- the inputs of Professor Agneta Bladh, Eva Egron-Polak, Dr Sijbolt Noorda, Professor Ella Ritchie and Professor Gulsun Saglamer, who with Emeritus Professor John Davies and Professor Caroline Parker served as MCO Ambassadors working with the pilot universities and as facilitators of workshops
- participants in workshops held in Bologna, Jordan, Thailand and Glasgow which contributed to the development of the draft instrument for piloting
- Julia Green for editing the prospectus and guidelines
- the secretariat of the Magna Charta Observatory for organisational, administrative and technical support.

DJL
22-8-18